

Senior Geotech Engineer

INTRODUCTION

Things are looking good at Fraser Thomas, Northland. Due to both staff changes and an expanding workload we have a number of positions available.

We provide a range of engineering and surveying services throughout Northland. Our team at the moment comprises 10 people. We are based in Paihia, the heart of the Bay of Islands.

Fraser Thomas Northland is part of Fraser Thomas Ltd, which is a multidiscipline consulting company with other offices located in Auckland (Papatoetoe and Sandringham), and Cambodia. We operate throughout the northern half of the North Island in New Zealand and extensively throughout Southeast Asia.

The company has an active mentoring programme for young professionals and encourages continuing professional development through regular in-house seminars and assistance with post-graduate study where appropriate.
